PREFACE

One hundred years is not just a milestone, it is a great accomplishment. In the days of the disappearance of many long-established traditions, the Yackety Yack still survives as the oldest student-run publication at the University of North Carolina.

The book was begun in 1892 though in a much different form and under a different name, The Hellenic. In 1890, the Dialectic Senate and Philanthropic Assembly combined with the fraternities to create more of a yearbook style and changed its name to the Yackety Yack, the name of a school cheer. J.C.B. Ehringhaus, a staff member who suggested the change, later became governor of the state and namesake of one of UNC's largest dorms.

Through these 100 years, the Yack has survived, though not always on time, or on budget, or without controversy, but survived nonetheless. It has seen many things. It is fascinating to go back and see the stories that the Yack tells. It has seen four wars, a Depression, women's suffrage, civil rights and integration, men in space, computer technology and much more. You need go no further than the pages of the Yack for a perfect scrapbook not only of UNC, but of this last century in the United States.

Though the size of the student body is phenomenal in comparison to what it was in 1890 and it has become much more difficult to chronicle the lives of individual students, the Yack has taken on a subsequent task. Our attempt has become to show that of a collective vision. What the student may see in a typical day as one walks to and from class, the sports that they play and that they flock to on fall Saturdays and winter nights, the cultural events that broaden their horizons, and the groups, honoraries, and greeks that they belong to.

While all this has changed, the Yack itself really has not. In the 40s, the Yack led the way in use of color photography. Over the years, the Yack would continue to excel at covering the sights of Carolina. Anyone can read many different accounts of different writers experiences of UNC. The Yack is not here to do that. It is here to appeal to the most delicate sense--that of sight. In bright vibrant color and in classic black and white, it has long been the Yack's vision as again this year, to provide you the student, you the parent, and all the rest of you who continue to support us, the best of UNC--UNC the way only the Yack sees it.

Included in the 1990 Yackety Yack, there are two "Hasbeen" lists. The Exalted Order of the Hasbeens was founded in 1973 to recognize the important Yackers of the year. This list usually includes editors and photo editors, however several business managers and managing/design editors have also been recognized.

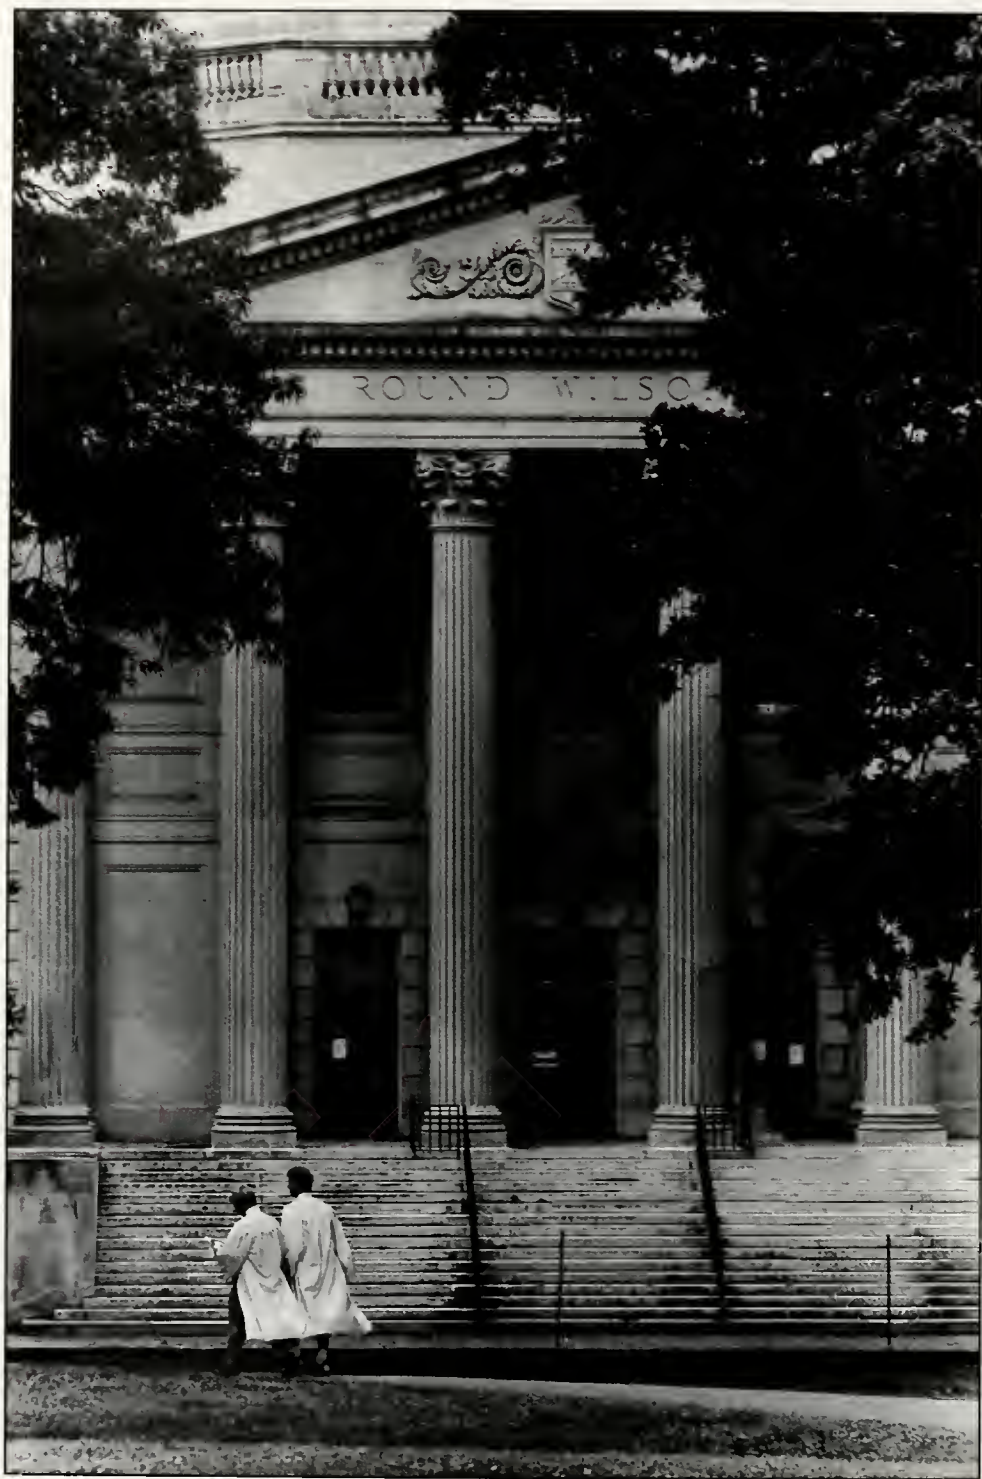

As this is the 100th edition of the Yack, there are many other Yackers from previous years that should also be recognized. This edition would like to acknowledge the Exalted Order of the Hasbeens and all known previous editors and photo editors.

THE LORELEIS

Fourteen women, clad in black, the soothing harmony of a capella voices captivating the UNC campus... the Loreleis. We opened the year with our show-stopping fall concert "Back in Black," and we haven't stopped since. Each ensemble member is musically gifted, both as a soloist and as a group singer. In our fall concert, each Lorelei had the opportunity to exhibit her solo voice.

The Loreleis are faculty-sponsored and student-run. The group's strength is derived from diversity--both among the individual members and in our music. Selections range from Yaz to Handel and include everything in between.

The group name is based on the German myth of the Lorelei. Long ago, sailors spent their lives exploring the lonely expanse of the open seas. On some of those dark, loveless, long nights, a sailor could look out upon the misty deep and define the shapely figure of a beautiful women. As she reclined luxuriously on her rock, the Lorelei would beckon him with her soothing words and her seductive voice, luring him to shipwreck and death among the rocks.

The Loreleis perform a fall and spring concert annually, including many gigs throughout the year. We also recorded our first album this spring. In addition, we co-host "Harmony on the Hill" each year to exhibit a capella talent from other schools.

CAA

Carolina Athletic Association

The purpose of the CAA is to represent student interests in the athletic issues at UNC. The CAA is run by a cabinet of twelve to fifteen people who supervise seven committees or areas of interest. The most prominent group is Carolina Fever, a 500-member spirit group which sponsors pep rallies, distributes publicity about sporting events, and cheers on the Heels at football, basketball and non-revenue games and events. The Rampage '90 committee plans and sponsors the week of Homecoming events in the Fall. The Publicity committee publicizes all of the CAA's activities and produces the Carolina Sports Outlook, a guide to UNC athletics which is distributed to all in-coming students. The Ticket committee sets the distribution policy for each year, handles crowd control, and other aspects of distribution days and is responsible for keeping in touch with student reactions to ticket policies. The Fundraising committee organizes t-shirt sales, fundraising drives and business sponsorships for the CAA. The CAA also works with the planning of the Student Recreation Center (SRC), which will serve as a student aerobic and weight training facility.

SOCIETY FOR THE APPRECIATION OF TAP-DANCING HIPPOPOTAMI

The Society for the Appreciation of Tap-Dancing Hippopotami was formed two years ago in accordance with the commands of the Great Hippo, who appeared before the High Priestess in a vision during a Student Congress meeting.

Since its inception, the group has busied itself by joining the ever-raging fight for creativity, impropriety and absurdity on campus. Landmarks of the 1989-90 school year include the preservation of plans for the Student Recreation Center, the discovery of Tetris and the reclamation of the Great Tretorn. The group looks forward to a new and even greater year, with an eye towards Silent Sam and his rightful place, the recycling bin at the Campus Y.

NEWMAN

The Catholic Student Center

Catholic Student Ministry has existed on this campus since before the Newman Center was built twenty years ago. For the past ten years, students have assumed the role of Student Campus Ministers to pursue comprehensive and diverse programming for interested university students, faculty and staff.

Catholic Campus Ministry follows the purpose to continue programs in Roman Catholic theology so that students may grow in their understanding of the Faith and to attempt to meet the spiritual needs of students by providing opportunities and activities to foster individual growth and community life.

Newman offers a wide variety of programs, from its weekly Wednesday student night with dinner and program; to retreats; human concern projects, such as Oxfam and Yoke Fellows; socials, including parties, movie nights, and a beach weekend; and campus related events.

ATHLETIC AWARDS

A TOAST FOR STATUS QUOISM

I'd rather be a could be
If I could not be an are
For a could be is a maybe
With a chance of reaching par

But I'd rather be a hasbeen
Than a might-have-been by far
For a might-have-been has never been
While a hasbeen was once an are

The 1990 Yackety Yack has now been a year and a half in the physical making and much more than that in my mind. Serving as Editor has not been an especially easy job. It's been a lot of long, hard hours. Even through the complaining, I really enjoyed every minute of it.

Without the help, the support, the love and the understanding of the following people, this book would not have been possible:

To all the Yack parents especially my mom & dad-- without their love I never would have made it this far; all the friends of Yackers for their understanding of the times when we blew you off for Yack work; all the previous 99 Yacks for setting the way & making the book the tradition that we follow in; all the great people at Delmar, especially Jim Hunter & Frank Meyers for putting up with us for three years now; Brian Hunter, the greatest yearbook rep & all-around guy in the world, a special thanks; Matt for listening to me whine; Charles Lockee; UNC Sports Information for their continuing assistance; SAFO; Scott Jared; all the guys at the Durham Morning Herald especially Kevin & Bernard; all those special photographers who without them I would have gone absolutely crazy; Dave for all the last minute work; Bob Donnan for all the help with the strobes & for being the best Hasbeen ever; Ed Davis; the Daily Tar Heel, especially Kevin, Stacy, and Bill; Tracy for being the best friend a girl could ever have; Jay Anthony, our wonderful advisor; Louise Gaskill from Carolina Computer; Dean Schroeder; Karen Wertman & the Alumni Association; Michael Sawchuk & Thornton Studios; Sharon Broom & Playmakers Repretory Company; Jon Curtis & the Student Union; Joel Sheer; Shea for helping me with the ideas to make this an awesome book; the 1991 photographers for helping finish this book; UNC Media Board; Mary, Frances, Beva, Peggy, Totsie, Susan, and Lula for supporting me when I left the Yack every week; Irene for the artwork and the design advice; everyone on staff this year for putting together this finished product; and to Kelley King and Liza Motsinger whose footsteps I follow in proudly.

To all these special people I would like to give my heartfelt thanks.

I love you all.

COLOPHON

The 1990 Yackety Yack is the 100th edition of the Yearbook of the University of North Carolina. Opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the administration, faculty, staff, or students of the University.

The offices of the Yackety Yack are located in Room 106 of the Frank Porter Graham Student Union. Correspondence should be sent to The Yackety Yack, UNC-CH, Box 50 Carolina Union, Chapel Hill, NC 27514.

The Yack was printed by Delmar Publishing of Charlotte, N.C. Our representative was Brian Hunter.

Student Portraits were taken by Thornton Studios of New York, N.Y., represented by Michael Sawchuk.

The cover is matte black Lexotone specially ordered from Holliston Mills, blind embossed with white silkscreen lettering. Endsheets are 65lb. coverweight white stock, blind embossed corresponding with cover design.

Paper used is 80 lb. Warren's Lustro Gloss specially ordered from Caskie Paper in Charlotte. All copy used in the book is Palatino.

All color photos, except those on pages 242-243, are four-color transparencies laser-scanned by a DS757 scanner. All black and white was reproduced using a 150 line elliptical dot screen. Duotones, done throughout the book, are P.M.S. Cool Gray 9C. Concert section, pages 194-221, was done on a matte black ink background with photos and surrounding tool lines (1 pt. white and 2 pt. black) varnished.

All photos except portraits and group shots (done by Photo Specialities of Chapel Hill) were shot and printed by staff and contributing Yack photogs. Yack camera equipment used was a Nikon 35mm system and a Bronica SQA 2 1/4 system.

All layout was done with an Apple Macintosh IICx and Laser Writer IINT. Software used was Aldus Pagemaker 3.0 and Compage, a Delmar template program.

Press run was 2500 copies. Subscription rates are $25 for returning students and $28 for non-returning or other out-of-town subscribers.
